Flower show has 25th anniversary

The 25th Anniversary of the VA Flower Show was celebrated Aug. 24-25 at Chillicothe Veterans Affairs Medical Center.

The Adelphi Band entertained at the ribbon cutting ceremony, which opened the show to the public at 2 p.m. State Representative Michael Shoemaker spoke and was the Master of Ceremonies. He introduced VA Chief of Staff Murali Chitluri, who gave a welcome on behalf of the VA Medical Center that hosted the event.

Violet Wright, president of the Federated Garden Clubs of Ross County, represented all of the members and Beulah Flannery, chairperson of the VA Flower Show, greeted and welcomed everyone.

Rev. Troy Gray, gave the invocation.

Donna Snyder candidate for Clerk of Courts and Sheriff Ron Nichols were introduced.

Sandra Dean of the Liberty Garden Club, spoke about the 25 years of the show and Ada Simon, one of the organizers of the first Show and all since.

Club presidents and representatives of each club were introduced, along with Phyllis Mueller, representing the flower show. Judges were: Gladys Melvin, Scioto Valley Dahlia Society, Don Pack, OH-ILCO Garden Club, and Bill Goff and Murali Chitluri, VA Staff.

Council of National Judges for the show included: Carolyn Bowman, Lebanon, Peg Newell and Eileen Richardson, both of Dayton, Phyllis Mueller, Beaver Creek, and Gertrude Richard and Polly Measamer, both of Circleville.

Clerks for the show were: Mary Crago and Sandra Flannery Dean, Liberty Garden Club, and Nellie Gomsi and M. Milliken, Brewer Heights Garden Club.

Committee members who helped Beulah Flannery with the show were: Barbara Coates, Lucy Anderson and Tanna Stauffer. Advisers included: Virginia Cockerill, Mary Rutledge, Violet Wright, Sandra and Gary Dean, Rose Shoemaker, Linda Edgington, Rosemary Cox, Gladys Melvin, Paul Congrove, John Lust, Scioto Valley Dahlia Society, Bill Goff, Coordinator of P.M.R.S., and Kathy Shafer, Greenhouse Therapist.

Garden club members acknowledged the Bicentennial years by dressing in colonial style.

The Chillicothe High School Symphony Orchestra performed Sunday afternoon from 1:30-2:30 p.m. with the show closing at 3 p.m.
