A BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Mr. William Huff, of East Fifth street, leader of the Odd Fellows band, was greeted by a very pleasant surprise on Friday evening when he returned to his home to find the members of the band assembled there to do him honor on his fiftieth birthday, the party having been arranged by Mrs. Huff and Mr. Charles Davenport. After a very enjoyable evening, Mrs. Huff assisted by Mrs. Clarence Lewis, Mrs. Frank Minch, Mrs. David Schreiber, and Mrs. Charles Crow, served tempting refreshments in the dining room, the centerpiece of the table being a large birthday cake with fifty candles.
