FARMER'S INSTITUTE

The first day of the Farmer's Institute was featured by an address under a clear sky, with stars everywhere and light aplenty over, most residents of the city's characteristic. The forenoon session was opened at 10:30 o'clock and a short talk to the young folks by T. A. Hagan. After dinner served at the M. E. church a session for men was held at the Grand theatre, while the women, at the M. E. church auditorium. Mrs. J. L. Portery of Circleville and Mrs. Forest Brenner addressed the women's meeting. The latter's address was enjoyed by talk on Tomato Culture by Wm. Cookus, another hard one, by Ted Singer and advantages of a dehorned steer by a farmer's boy by J. L. Portery.

Thursday's meeting opens was emphasized by an interesting talk on AIDS, by Dr. D. Landon of Columbus, followed by a talk on plans to go ahead by Forest Mossner and the postmaster and his patrons, Willis R. Mossner.

Thursday afternoon found the women's meeting in charge of Mrs. Ella Ayers Howe as a Parlor is Our Nation" by Mrs. Walter Cory. Timely remarks by County Agent Fred R. Kinker and humorous talks directed by Mrs. O. B. Hatcher.

Probably the most catchy feature of the day's program was the music by "Howe, Golly Jungers," which proved that the Howe's have a capacity income, all well adapted by Prof. Ray Harris' orchestra. Conditions as they now exist, to distant, benighted Russia. Other musical numbers made up a very interesting program. This closed one of the very best midwinter institutes ever held in Ross county.

POSSIBLE JOINT HEIR TO FIFTY MILLIONS

Cyrus Atwater, or "Dick" as he is familiarly called, the village mail and mail messenger, has received notice that he is a possible joint heir to a $50,000,000 estate in California.

Through an overdue file that corresponding to name in Ohio, had left a vast estate in California and they are getting ready to investigate. Byke promises that if he gets the money he will present South Salem with a community house and start an uplifting back in his home town.
