THE I. O. O. F. BAND IS ABOUT READY TO PLAY

The I. O. O. F. band, recently organized, is almost ready to play. The instruments were issued at a meeting held Sunday morning and a partial organization effected as follows:

Manager, Adam Uhrig; director William Huff; drum major, James I. Schneider; cornets, William Huff, Norman Downing, Willard Hoffman, George Placier; trombones, F. M. Minch, H. A. Imhoff, Herman Ecnenson; ballad horns, Oney Eisen- gule, L. M. Snyder, Adam Uhrig; will baritone, C. R. Buchanan; bass, Clar- dge nce Lewis; saxophones, Ray and Ernest Ortman and Otis Uhrig; clarinets, Carl Uhrig, D. H. Placier, Ernest Richards; snare drums, en George D. Herman; bass and cym- ble bals, Walter Tudor and James Rook- ons er.

It was decided to strengthen the reed sections by adding another sax- aphone and two clarinets.

Another meeting will be held Sun- day afternoon at which the organiza- tion will be further perfected.
