

SOCIAL WORLD

IN HIS LUNCH

W. SIFFERD at a dinner; that was the occupation of the dwellers of that modest one in his fifth chapter again, who was distinguished by the fact that more of bread and fish. On the way to the dining room, he was surrounded by a throng of admirers and duty to himself on the opposite shore.

He was aware of what was happening, but they wanted something with of fish. The lad insisted that tea they enough at best for one or two hurriedly willing to give it up, he could not as for the father: it was now far erly. The Master of the crowd was to be known as being, and the hours intruded to all, everyone having a lunch break was packed full of the demands of the hungry thousands back as a note testimony of the new it the lad was whisked into the to be served and the warm hand of in his bare hand.

Can he open you, my lad? You have have given what you had so willing- to back to their homes returned.

As long as the world stands this bit of and your doing it so readily, and all those blessings a thousand fold of all time, blessings a thousand fold long like the lad never forget. Under W. add he prepared, and he rubbed errors with whom he came in con-

Mrs. E. O. Olson, Kenneth Conrad and Miss Mavis Willis Reading—"The Old Schoolmaster"..... Mrs. E. R. Norvell Orchestra—"Book Me to Sleep in that old rocking chair"..... Refreshments were served at the close by Mrs. Lee Thum; Mrs. Traylor and Mrs. D. C. Marshall; the tea table being especially "very" with its silver appointments.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY.
Mr. Walter Orndorfer of West Water street was most agreeably surprised. Friday evening, when thirty-one of his relatives and friends gathered at his home to celebrate his birth anniversary. The evening was informally spent with cards and dancing, and at a late hour, sandwiches and coffee were served. Mrs. Orndorfer was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Elmsaugh of Jackson were out-of-town guests.

A GOLF PARTY.
There were five tables of bridge at play Friday afternoon in the O. E. S. Temple, with Mrs. Earl Brandenburg and Mrs. David Covey as hostesses. The prize for high score was won by Mrs. John Whittier. Bridge will again be played next Friday afternoon at 2:15 in the Temple.

BRIDGE CLUB WAS ENTERTAINED.
Mrs. Russell Van Channing was a guest, Friday evening, when Mrs. Carl Mullen entertained her bridge club at her home on North Point street.

Two tables were assembled for the delightful round of bridge and after a satisfying score, Mrs. Bernard Cadden and Mrs. Howard Spang were awarded prizes for scoring a club.

A table game brought the evening to a close.

Mrs. Robert Holm will be the club's next hostess.

FIRST CHURCH WILL HEAR SINGERS.
The Kentucky Harmony Singers will sing at the First Presbyterian Sunday School, Sunday morning at 10:30.

G. W. BRADLEY AUXILIARY MET.
The regular meeting of the G. W. Bradley Auxiliary was held Friday evening in the Armory with a good attendance. Only the routine business was transacted.

WILL MEET MONDAY.
The Military Order of Linnards will meet on Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Frank Krieger on North Point street, and every member is asked to be present at this time.

The members may invite their husbands to attend the meeting.

ENTERTAINMENT CLUB.
Mrs. H. M. Cotton and Mrs. Clara Schaefer were guests, Friday evening, when Mrs. Charles Hume entertained her bridge club at her home on East Main street.

CONDUCTOR, LONG T. BEHOLD, HAS BEEN FAVOR. This ultra long tower to which the material can be It is a three-piece of a hat and tail and a blouse of unusual width base.

The straight jacket tailored and is trim of the same gaudy material, they are socially, "slender" off the blouse.

A most pleasant about the the conclusion of James Dunlap, M. and Mrs. Clara awarded prizes for the house set salad course at 11 evening.

The club will next with Miss Helen home on North Point.

O. E. S. SEWING
The dance given by the Sewing Club on Friday the O. E. S. Temple, successful, one by couple being in it.

The music from members of W was splendid and evening was enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. C. A. Koenig, chairman of the day.

ANDERSONVILLE
An interesting demonstration of Red C held on Thursday at the Misses Clara's

THREE THOUSAND AND THREE! SPROUT'S DRUG STORE

ASPIRIN

PARAFFIN

Delightful Town in the heart and vegetable sources. A modern hotel where guests receive the best as little as 95¢ per day.

Clipped By:

Bandman2020
Thu, Oct 29, 2020