

Looking Backward

News from Gazette Files of Other Years

10 YEARS AGO

Under the direction of Miss Mabel Lawler, music supervisor in the public school, the Chillicothe High School Girls Club, assisted by the High School string trio and a brass quartet, will broadcast the following program from station WAIU, Saturday from 12:30 to 1.00 p. m.: Lullaby from Largo New World Symphony, Dvorak; Waltz Song, Strauss; string trio, Ruth Larimore, violin, Mary Kirsch, violin, Paul Conaway, cello, Russell Squire, piano; vocal solo, Evelyn Ludwig; "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," Herbert, trio, Jessie Louise Franklin, Dorothy Baird and Justina Evans; "Bells of St. Mary's" Girls' Glee Club; "A Hunting We Will Go," quartet, Marjorie Huff, cornet, Robert Smith, cornet, William Huber, horn and Robert Reis, trombone.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ward entertain at dinner Saturday evening at their home on Bishop Hill. Guests are the Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Abel, and children, Andersonville, Miss Lucille Stout, Mr. W. A. Lucas and Mrs. Frank Francis, both of Chillicothe and Mr. Carl Riley.

Among the local members of the Ross County Bar Association who are planning to attend state association meeting in Columbus Friday are Messrs. J. D. Withgott, John Phillips, Jr., Wilby G. Hyde, Garrett S. Claypool, Marshall Fenton and Wilbur McKenzie.

Dr. and Mrs. C. V. Yaple are hosts at a family dinner Sunday at their home on West Fifth street. Present are Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Yaple, Dr. and Mrs. S. T. Yaple, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Yaple, Mr. Leland Yaple, Mrs. Adella Ashworth, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Watson, New Vienna.

Clipped By:

Bandman2020
Mon, Nov 2, 2020