

THE DAILY HERALD—CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO

Saltcreek Valley

or of her birthday anniversary also celebrating Grandma's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Mowery spent Sunday at the Lancaster Camp Ground and called at the home of Mrs. H. E. Balthaser. Mrs. Lloyd Spung and daughter Ruth are spending several days with Mrs. Balthaser while Mr. Balthaser is a patient at Mt. Carmel Hospital Columbus.

Mrs. C. D. Rector and son Dwight Jr. and David Luckhart from here attended the O. S. U. and Pittsburgh football game in Columbus last Saturday.

The following guests came to the Luckhart home last Wednesday evening and gave David a complete surprise on his birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Maxson, Donnie, Raymond and Wanda, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Dearth and Margie, Mr. and Mrs. Gail Heffner. Refreshments were served and games were enjoyed by all.

Franklin Strous, member of the Adelphi Band played at a Republican Rally Saturday afternoon at Chillicothe for Don H. Ebright candidate for governor of Ohio.

Tarlton Presbyterian Sunday School held a picnic Sunday at the Laurelville park.

Mrs. Alice Sensenbrenner of Circleville was calling on friends in our valley last Tuesday evening.

About 40 relatives and friends came to the home of Mr. Wayne Francis with well filled baskets Sunday as a surprise in honor of his birthday.

Sewing Machine Case Sewed Up

ARLINGTON, Va., Oct. 11—The case of the stolen sewing machines was sewed up today. Arlington police charged Bernard Merritt and Alvin R. Min-del, former employes of the Ar-

Clipped By:

mathew5554
Mon, Mar 4, 2019