

EDIT SHARE PRINT DOWNLOAD Save to Ancestry

FAIR

SER

One) (Continued from Page One)

(Continued from Page One)

from at 5 to in- the near e ac- stem. y the n Air strate ballis- stage, th its miles an al- h, the was at its miles about on its ed to ont of posi- nown, of the - school personnel from the county and city are admitted free. Weather permitting the spectacular High School Band Parade starting at 9:45 a.m. will open the curtain on the 109th Fairfield County Exposition.

The speed program is scheduled to start Wednesday afternoon while the first night attraction, the Variety Revue, will be presented tomorrow evening at 8 following an exhibition by Carl Bradford's Border Collies.

In the Junior Fair program, the annual Beef Cattle showmanship Contest will be staged in the big show tent north of the race track, around 4:30 p.m., tomorrow.

The Ohio Hereford Show begins at 12:30 p.m. in the tent arena.

Announces Judges

Judges for the exhibits in the various departments this year were announced by Secretary Alt as follows:

Needlework — Mrs. Harold Holliker, Waterville; farm products—Thomas Powell Sr., Frazeysburg; food for the home—Mrs. Dorcas Winter, Upper Sandusky; bees—S. E. Bailey, Columbus.

Swine—Ross Winter, Upper Sandusky; sheep—Carl Bradford, Wooster; Hereford Show—D. E. Brower Jr., Still House Hollow Farm, Hum e, Va.; horses and ponies—Walter Hoeswischer, St. Mary; beef cattle—Paul Teegardin, Ashville; dairy cattle—Dr. John L. McKittrick, Dublin; Paul Dillon—Short-horns and Polled Herefords.

Bands To Play

Six county school bands will play at the fairgrounds to entertain visitors this week. Thurston is scheduled Wednesday morning and Pickerington Wednesday afternoon.

Thursday's schedule calls for Pleasantville Band in the morning, Liberty Union in the afternoon. Bremen Band will play Friday morning, Berne Union, Friday afternoon.

The Adelphi Band will be on the grounds as usual, Saturday and lead the Parade of Champions.

The Caledonia Pipe Band of Cleveland will present a show of bagpipe music and Scottish dancing Saturday afternoon. The troupe of 20 with an additional group of 15, will arrive by bus around noon, Saturday. They will be on the fairgrounds the remainder of the day, entertaining crowds in the grandstand and on the midway, Secretary Alt said.

The bandy-legged whooping crane is the largest bird on the North American continent.

R. G. Dun was founder of the credit-rating system of Dun and Bradstreet.

license, c revocatio

(i) AN by a pers the instr officer a been pla reckless

In oth passed th

An ord service-s tise for a contra 36 meter and to funds.

A RES use of c (situated as indica Huffer-L for publi

A res from the the Mur for repa $115 to t ment for

An or wage or Fairfield the hou monthly $225 and to set th medical at $400. establish fice ma with a $350 per

AN O for the ticipatio bonds f proving works treatment ing the

A res positoric funds. $200,000

One) 2 p.m. a car illard, school, a trac- hester, caus- farm age to r driv- er, 39, k the e rear, age to d and ed by o stop r dis- report- d that l Win- is car into a age, no olmen, d., less Canal t 12:25 sted. average thers in hrist of and rest t high.

nearly railroad