Halloween Parade Entries Exceed 50

Richard Downing, chairman of the Chillicothe Halloween Committee, reported Thursday entries for the parade, scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 29, have topped the 50 mark — almost two weeks earlier than they did a year ago.

"Given good weather," he opined, "this could be one of the finest lines of march in our 38-year-history."

The latest group of entries — 17 in number — includes six floats, three marching units, two color guard contingents, two groups of cheerleaders, a horse, car and the Ross County Junior Fair Queen and her court.

Mr. Downing noted the listing includes none of the eight Miss Ross County candidates nor any of the 12 marching bands that have entered.

Wednesday Deadline

Deadline for making entries, is 5 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 26.

Latest entries include VFW Post 108, color guard; VFW Auxiliary, community service float; VFW Glennettes senior and junior units of precision marchers; Southeastern High School freshman cheerleaders; Southeastern Junior High School cheeleades; Girl Scout Troop 1235, novelty float; Boy Scout Troop 9, United Commercial Travelers, community service float; American Legion Post 62, color guard; Huntington Ramblers 4-H Club, novelty float; Ross County Junior Deputy Sheriff's Association, marching unit;

Decca Education Class of Chillicothe High School, beauty float; Ross County Junior Fair Queen and Court; Huntington Future Homemakers of America, FHA queen and court; Mount Logan Junior High School, cheerleaders, and IOOF Lodge, community service float.

O. I. Copley reports musical contingents entered include the Huntington junior and senior bands; J. A. Smith-Mount Logan Junior High combined bands; Zane Trace junior and senior bands; Adelphi Community band; Southeastern High School senior band; Chillicothe High School senior band; Paint Valley senior band, Adena junior and senior bands, and Unio to senior band.

The lone Miss Ross County entrant to date is Huntington's Lois Jett, according to Miss Florence Frakes.
