

2-Chillicothe, O. Gazette, Wednesday, Sept. 16, 1970

Committee lists events for Festival of Leaves

RAINBIDGE — A tentative list of the first full day of activities of God, who will also make his demonstration by Charity Mc-

The festival will run through Sunday, Oct. 18. On Friday, Oct. 17, the Chillicothe Church will host a service at 7:30 p.m. in the Paton Theatre. The 1970 Festival of Leaves, sponsored by the Chillicothe Branch of the National Shrine, is tentatively set for Oct. 17 and 18. The festival will be held at the Chillicothe Branch of the National Shrine, 115 E. Main Street. The festival will be held at the Chillicothe Branch of the National Shrine, 115 E. Main Street.

Deadline next Wednesday for voter registration

One week remains for those that election registration be County voters to register for the Oct. 19 election in the special district where year, however, as the Attorney General, Director of the special election in being general's opinion was discovered after preparation and advice.

However, Moore said, an opinion issued by former Attorney General C. William O'Neil, pertains to the Nov. 3 election to next year. Moore said that the registration office is being held in the county Friday and Saturday. Moore said the Board of Election will remain open until the 25th.

New member named to Piketon board

PIKETON — Kenneth Hale of Piketon is president. The board was sworn in at a meeting held in the Piketon High School. The board members are: Richard Smith, chairman; Robert Smith, vice chairman; and John Smith, secretary.

The board will hold its next meeting on Oct. 15 at 8:30 a.m. in the Piketon High School.

Harris case conference reported

A private conference was held Tuesday morning between a group of attorneys and a judge. The conference was held in the Chillicothe Court House.

The attorneys involved in the case were: James B. Anderson, Robert Smith, and John Smith. The judge presiding was Judge J. B. Anderson.

deaths

Randolph Wilson, 72, of 1111 S. Main St., died Wednesday morning at Chillicothe Hospital. Arrangements are pending at Fawcett-Oliver and Cass Funeral Home.

Fatal fire mystery unsolved

Chillicothe, Ohio, firefighters are working to solve a mystery that has baffled investigators for weeks. The fire occurred at the Chillicothe High School on Friday night.

The fire started in a classroom and spread to the main building. The cause of the fire is still unknown.

Clipped By:

mathew5554
Fri, Mar 22, 2019