part of the Adelphi Community Band, said he was shocked to hear of his death.

"He always enjoyed music played in a rousing rendition," Bennett said.

Connett grew up in Athens County but lived the last 38 years in Piketon. He enrolled in OU in 1908 but his education was interrupted to serve a tour of duty during World War I.

He owned and operated a piano tuning business from his home and taught music and band in several Pike County school districts. He was music director at Beaver schools before it joined with Stockdale to become Eastern Local.
