

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1929—THE SCIOTO GA...

dish, sandwiches and table service. Good program assured at 7:30. Special music, good fellowship. The principal address of the evening will be delivered by Dr. Arthur Cherrington, D. D., former pastor of the church. Invitation is extended to all members and friends of the school and church and the general public.

Mrs. Cherrington will accompany her husband to the city. They will be entertained at the home of John P. Phillips.

TO MEET

The Big Sister Class of Walnut Street M. E. church will meet at the church tomorrow evening, for a covered dish supper, at six o'clock. All members are asked to be present as election of officers will take place.

UPSILON ALPHA CLASS

The Upsilon Alpha Class of St. John's Evangelical Church met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Mausietta Schwartz, on North Hickory street.

During the business session the class decided to sew for St. Luke's Evangelical Hospital, in St. Louis, Missouri, as a part of their Christmas work.

High and low scores in "Michigan" were held by Miss Marie Brand and Mrs. Oliver Snyder.

At the close of the evening the hostess served a tempting salad course.

The Misses Louise O'Donnell, Arvilla Pittner and Mrs. Harry Cochran, of Columbus, were guests of the class.

The next meeting will be held the third Wednesday in November, the place as yet undecided.

ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB

Miss Harriet Bickle of East Water street entertained last evening members of her bridge club when three tables were at play. At the close of the game attractive trophies were awarded Miss Mabel Laughlin, Miss Margaret Miller and Miss Sylvia Sli.

Concluding the game the hostess served a delicious salad course. In two weeks Miss Agnes Crohn will entertain.

ATTENDING CONVENTION

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fodehaver, accompanied by Rev. I. C. Weber and Miss Geneva Hart, left yesterday for Toledo, Ohio, where they will attend the Masonic convention.

CHRISTIAN WORKERS MET

The Christian Workers of the Bridge Street Church of Christ met at the home of Mrs. Henry Wallingford of Riverside at a Wednesday evening with a good attendance. Devotional exercises were in charge of Mrs. Inna Lee, and the business in charge of Mrs. W. F. Schuller. During the business the president appointed the standing committees for the year as follows: Devotional, Mrs. Dora Lee and Mrs. Scott Taylor; Social, Mrs. William Wallingford, Mrs. Henry Wallingford, Mrs. Harry Haas, Mrs. Jessie Olson; Lookout, Mrs. Walter Minner, Mrs. Lee Damm, Mrs. Ward Miller; Sick, Mrs. John Lewis, Mrs. Leroy Taylor, Mrs. George Cherrington, and Stella Oakes.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess during the social hour. The next meeting will be held in three weeks at the home of Mrs. William Huff of West Main street.

ENTERTAINED AT

THE SHANTY

Coming as one of a series of informal parties, Mrs. William A. Wallace of West Second street entertained delightfully Thursday at luncheon and bridge at "The Shanty," the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace near Bainbridge.

The gorgeous autumn coloring of the surrounding country and the picturesque setting of the home, added much to the enjoyment of the occasion.

The long table in the dining room where twenty guests were served a delicious luncheon, carried Halloween decorations.

After the luncheon, five tables were formed for bridge, at the conclusion of which prizes for high, second and low scores were awarded Mrs. C. A. Winesap, Miss Anna Keim and Mrs. Kate Stahler.

MRS. VINCENT HOSTESS

Mrs. Ben Vincent of South Watts street was hostess last evening to members of her afternoon bridge club when four tables were at play. Concluding scores made awards to Mrs. C. A. Kennett, Mrs. E. G. Brandenburg and Mrs. Jacob Schreiner. Mrs. E. R. Russel was given a pretty trophy also.

A delicious salad course was served at the close of the afternoon. In two weeks Mrs. C. A. Woods of Eastern avenue will entertain.

MRS. CAMPBELL HOSTESS

Mrs. Oren Campbell, of Church street, was a delightful hostess yesterday afternoon, to members of her bridge club, when two tables were at play. At the close of the game attractive trophies were awarded Mrs. Frank Braley and Mrs. Loan Powell. Concluding the afternoon the hostess served a delicious salad course.

Next week Mrs. Loan Powell, of Church street, will entertain.
