Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Paxton have returned from a ten day trip that included Texas, New Mexico, Colorado and Mexico. Their daughter, Terri and son, Danny stayed with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Large while their parents were away. Another weekend guest of his grandparents, was young Matthew Large.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Flugge have returned home from an eleven day business to San Francisco and Central California.

Mrs. Lee Stepp of Portsmouth spent several days this week with her sister, Mrs. Flora Sims.

The annual Kingston American

Legion Turkey supper will be on Oct. 27, with the Ladies of the Auxiliary in the kitchen and serving. Serving is from 5 until 7 p.m.

Brian Kerns called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kerns Friday night to tell them that he was one of the five men chosen for the Ohio University Baseball team. Brian is in his freshman year at the Athens Campus and has been involved in baseball from the Little League on through school, being found mostly at short-stop position.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Snyder and children and her mother, Mrs. Harvey Large were last weekend guests of their cousin, Glen Waite at his home in Cedar Springs, Michigan and attended the Red Flannel Days festival.

Mrs. Gwen Rhoades attended the Twenty-fifth wedding celebration for her son and daughter-in-law, Roy E. (Dusty) and Marilyn Rhoades at the Trinity Methodist Church in Chillicothe, Sunday afternoon. They were quite surprised when the Buckeye Barber Shop Chorus from Columbus, which Mr. Rhoades directs, showed up in full regalia and gave a program of songs both by the Chorus and the various quartets. Also present were the couples four children, Jane, Carol, Robin and Roy.

Again this year, the ladies of the Kingston Volunteer Firemen's Auxiliary will give a costume party for youngsters in place of trick or treat. There will be prizes for the prettiest, ugliest and most original and each in three age groups. There will be prizes and treats for everyone. The date is Oct. 26 at the firehouse.

Mrs. I. H. Weaver and her son, Mr. Forrest Weaver have rented the Patrick house on the county-line Rd. and moved in over the weekend. The Weaver's formerly lived on Route 4, Chillicothe, near Hopetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bright of Carthage, Mo., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bower last week.

Mrs. Leona Gibson, Mrs. Nova Phillips, Mrs. Donald Buchwalter and Mrs. Grace Arledge visited with Max Gibson in Gallipolis, one day, last week.

Sunday High-Powered Beer Sales Are Legal

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes allowed to become law without his signature Wednesday a bill to permit sale of high-powered beer and wine on Sundays, subject to approval by voters at local option elections.

Rhodes did not comment on the legislation which was sponsored by Rep. Patrick A. Sweeney, D-6 Cleveland.

The bill, which is effective Jan. 18, is specifically designed for carryouts and other sellers of take-home packages. Under present law, only the sale of beer with 3.2 per cent alcohol content may be sold on Sunday.
