VISITORS ARRIVE From Aunts To Be Guest At tradition of Show.

With Circleville again becoming a city of youth and visitors, the Pumpkin Show in all its glory is ready to begin its twenty-second annual program. Many persons have begun to travel here very early to the city and those who make the Pumpkin Show, the one that is usually the most interesting and frivolous have already come into the city for the big event.

The parade will begin Wednesday at 7 p. m. When the Legion drum corps leads the parade will be the welcome procession. This parade will form on Wednesday at 7 o'clock at Franklin street, west of Main Street, south of Pickaway in Franklin through to Court and north to Union to Pickaway avenue. Whatsoever be opened to the parade will be the main and all through the line of march these visitors will be brought to behold the advent of the show.

On Thursday, the
