Shots fired, man arrested

A man was arrested early this morning after he allegedly drove through lawns at Heritage Way Apartments and was shot at by a resident.

John T. Whitaker called the Ross County Sheriff's Department at 3:44 a.m. in reference to a car driving through the lawn of his apartment, 1355 Western Ave.

He later called back and reported he fired a .38-caliber pistol at the vehicle. Deputies spotted a car, meeting Whitaker's description, on Western Avenue. The car was identified as belonging to David Schirtzinger, 24, of 115 Fruit Hill Drive.

The vehicle was followed to the Schirtzinger residence where Schirtzinger allegedly changed vehicles and then drove to Schirtzinger Associates, U.S. 50. He was arrested at the building and charged with criminal damaging and reckless operation.

Schirtzinger was taken to the Ross County Jail where he later posted $550 bond and was released.

Political rally set for Monday

Senator John Glenn will be the main speaker at a pre-election rally for Ted Strickland, Democratic candidate for 6th Congressional District representative, Monday at the Chillicothe High School gymnasium from 7:30 - 9 p.m.

A fund-raising reception will be held at the home of Bob and Jeanne Badgley, 12 Limestone Blvd. prior to the rally.

Glenn participated in a parade at the Circleville Pumpkin Show Thursday with Richard Celeste, Democratic candidate for governor, William Harsha, Republican representative, and Strickland.

Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, Mike Dorrian, was at Paint Valley High School this morning in a campaign tour of the area.
