

Dixon, Wayne Graves and Franklin Mansfield.
☆☆☆

G. F. S. HAVE GUEST NIGHT
St. Paul's Parish House was tastefully decorated with baskets of fall flowers, Monday evening, when about sixty members of the Girls Friendly Society and their guests enjoyed an interesting program, the occasion being annual guest night.

Mr. Paul Fuchs, magician, kept the audience in a continual state of expectancy when he brought for their amusement, his "bag of tricks." Always an interesting performance, the half hour he spent in entertaining them was especially enjoyable.

The "Chillicothe Junior Symphony Orchestra," under the direction of Mrs. Wm. Huff gave a number of selections before and after Mr. Fuchs' performance. The music was delightful, and quite remarkable for children so young. Chester Ganyon, a member of the orchestra, played a violin solo, and Marjory and Billy Huff played a cornet duet.

Miss Virginia Barr accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Emma Barr played two very pretty violin solos.

Miss Kate Smith was chairman of the committee in charge of this happy occasion.

On next Monday, there will be a covered dish supper at six o'clock. Mrs. Richard Austin of Cincinnati, president of the Girls Friendly Society for the Diocese of Southern Ohio, will be a guest and will speak to the members particularly on the subject of the Junior Girls Friendly Society. Mrs. Austin is a most charming woman and an interesting speaker, and every member is urged to attend the meeting.

☆☆☆

Clipped By:

Bandman2020
Wed, Oct 28, 2020