TWO LARGE MEETINGS.

General Grosvenor at Hallsville and an Eloquent Trio at Massieville.

There will be two large Republican meeting in this county this evening, one at Massieville, and another at Hallsville, and from present indications both will be largely attended.

At Hallsville, Gen. Charles H. Grosvenor and Hon. Arch Mayo will speak, and the committee in charge reports this afternoon that a very large crowd will be there, and that the meeting will be one of the largest and most successful ever held in the county.

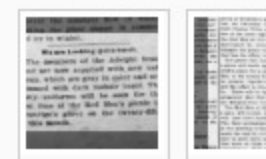

A special train will be run from Adelphi to Hallsville on the Kingston & Adelphi railroad, and the Adelphi band will furnish music for the occasion. Those who went from this city are Messrs. G. W. C. Perry and Addison P. Minshall.

The meeting at Massieville will be addressed by Messrs. Timmons Har-mount, Hilan K. Galbraith and Will A. Wallace, a trio of young speakers who should make the meeting most interesting to the citizens of that neighborhood.

Mr. James Lucas' orchestra will be present also, and will enliven the occasion with some of their orchestral selections. The orchestra is in good condition, and is a high class musical organization, which is well worth hearing.
