ROSS DEMOCRATS PLAN MORE RALLIES

Final Meeting Scheduled for Nov. 2d at Armory

Democratic rallies, one of which will be conducted at Bainbridge Opera House Thursday, 8 p. m., will end Wednesday, Nov. 2d at the local Armory, it is announced by Mr. J. H. Mattox, chairman of the Ross County Democratic Executive committee.

Speakers for the grand finale will be Mr. George White, former governor of Ohio and Judge Edward T. Dixon, of Cincinnati. Representatives of state candidates and all county candidates will be present. Music will be furnished by the Adelphi band.

Mr. Fred Elsass, Ohio House of Representatives' clerk will be the principal speaker at Bainbridge when the Democrats rally there tonight. Mr. Rodney Gragg, of Bainbridge, will preside.

At the rally in Lyndon Wednesday evening a large crowd filled the township hall when Mr. Robert Reider, Ohio University professor, gave the principal address. Mr. W. Forrest Sheely, candidate for state representative, conducted the meeting. Mr. Earl B. Parker, Waverly attorney, also spoke.

A meeting of all Democratic women is scheduled at Democratic headquarters, West Second street, Friday, 7:30 p. m.
