

27 At Business College Have Hallowe'en Party

With yellow and orange pumpkin faces and black cardboard cats and witches lining the walls, and corn fodder, jack o'lanterns and crepe paper streamers in black and orange colors decorating one of the rooms, the Chillicothe Business college was the scene of a Hallowe'en party Wednesday evening.

The 27 students at the college and their guests arrived in Hallowe'en costumes and masks for the annual party. Prizes were awarded to the Misses Edith Hafler and Madelaine Dougherty for the most beautiful costumes, and to Miss Marjorie Huff, whose ensemble depicted that of a scarecrow, for the most unusual.

The evening was passed with a program of stunts, contests and games, during which prizes were won by the Misses Elizabeth Schlegel, Florence Frakes, Juanita Allen, Sara Sexton and Mr. Don Gallagher.

A table was set at one end of the room, bearing decorations in Hallowe'en colors, from which refreshments were served during the party.

Miss Sara Sexton was general chairman of arrangements for the party, with Miss Jeanne Palmer as chairman of the entertainment committee. Miss Ruth Snyder and Mr. Norman Mahaffey were co-chairmen of the refreshments committee, with others assisting with arrangements including the Misses Elizabeth Schlegel and Marjorie Huff.
