The local musicians comprising the members and their families of Local 524 A. F. of M. enjoyed dinner at 6:30 last evening in the Odd Fellows hall. The dinner was prepared and served by W. N. "Bud" Janes and was all that means for Mr. Janes is noted for his dinners.

C. A. Davenport presided as toastmaster and five minute talks were made upon his call by Oliver Von Clausburg, the first secretary of the local union. Adam H. Uhrig, vice president and manager of the band; Walt Sears for the dance orchestras.

A musical program was put on in the main hall after the dinner with Mrs. Bess Stevenson singing "Glow Worm and Mother Macree" accompanied by the band with Will Huff directing. There were about one hundred there and a royal good time had by all.
