Jackson Grand Jury Starts Deliberations

JACKSON — Grand jurors convened in common pleas court Friday morning to investigate more than 30 criminal charges.

Indications were that Prosecuting Attorney Roy J. Gillen would devote today's session to the major complaints against two defendants and that the other charges would be considered when the jury returns next week.

Witnesses called for today included James Hughes, Grace Hughes, Tom Wagner, Harry Keith Wheaton, Bernard Inman, Janet Dixon, Fred Shook, Mrs. Paul Dixon, John E. Evans, Dr. Louis J. Jindra and Marcia Shook.

The number of cases for investigation was increased by late-filed complaints against Everett Phillips, Donald Phillips and Hayden Leroy Davis.

Taxicab Bumped, Driver Is Cited

Dennis W. Stanley, 18, Route 6, was charged by police with reckless operation Thursday evening when he was involved in a collision with a taxicab in the 300 block of East Main Street.

Stanley told police he did not see the cab until too late to avoid a collision. He hit the rear of the cab which had double parked to discharge a passenger. The car slid 36 feet before hitting the cab, police said.

The taxi, driven by Robert H. Newcombe, 56, of 119½ Park St., was moderately damaged on the rear while the Stanley vehicle was damaged heavily on the right front.

Backing Auto Hits Parked Car

Ralph L. Boggs, 33, of 421 East Main St., backing from a driveway near the intersection of Routes 25 and 104, continued across the roadway and struck a parked automobile, Thursday evening.

Deputy Sheriff Austin Leedom said there was $15 damage to the rear of Boggs' sedan and approximately $200 to the auto of Robert M. Trenster, 42, of Richwood.
