Miss Sharon Allen, who was selected Wednesday as Firemen's Queen at Laurelville's annual fall festival, will represent Laurelville in a queen contest opening night of Circleville's 52nd annual pumpkin show Oct. 15-18.

Miss Allen, 17-year-old Laurelville High School senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Allen of Laurelville, was chosen from among eight contestants for the title of "Firemen's Queen."

She has been a cheerleader at Laurelville High for three years and is a member of the National Honor Society.

The Laurelville festival, which opened Tuesday, will end this evening with Laurelville and Centralia high school bands and the Adelphi Community band participating in a parade that includes antique autos, horses and riders, horse-drawn vehicles, floats and the queen and her court.

Cash prizes will be awarded the best floats and best parade horses. The parade gets under way at 5 p.m.

The festival committee is comprised of Hugh Poling, fire chief; Robert Thompson and Orville Kempton, assistant fire chiefs; Franklin Strous, secretary-treasurer of the Laurelville Volunteer Firemen Association and Dwight Eveland, president of the organization.
