

114 years ago, the Fairfield County Fair used this poster for advertising.

Grandstand at 1 p.m., and the Combine "Farm Implement" Demolition Derby at the Grandstand at 7:30 p.m.

Couples who have been married for 50 years or more will be honored from 12:30 to 1 p.m. at the WLOH Radio Tent.

Judging Wednesday includes Junior Fair Swine at the Swine Arena at 8 a.m., Junior Fair Horse Show at the Show and Outside arenas at 8:30 a.m., and Open Class Sheep at 9 a.m. The Guys and Gals Sheep Lead Competition will be held at the Show Arena at 7 p.m.

Thursday is "School Day." Free entertainment highlights are a High School Band Parade at 9:45 a.m. at the Grandstand, harness races at 1:30 p.m. at the Grandstand, a Hocking Valley Gymnastics show at the Grandstand at 6:15 p.m. and a Truck and Tractor Pull at the Grandstand at 7 p.m.

The first Junior Fair Livestock Auction of the 2000 fair will start at 5:30 p.m. Thursday. Market Goats and Market Swine will be

ANNIVERSARY PARADE
Making a reappearance after a several-year hiatus is the parade at 10 a.m. Saturday.

According to Benson, fair manager, the parade will feature the new and the old.

The Adelphi Community Band out of Ross County will march in the parade. Several Fairfield County residents are members of the band.

Benson said all former Fairfield County Fair queens and past outstanding boys and girls have been invited to participate. They will all ride in the parade in horsedrawn wagons.

There will be antique and new cars, trucks and tractors.

Former "Moms of the Year" will participate.

Winners and champions in this year's fair will also participate in the parade, including the winners of the Art Hall competitions, the Outstanding Boy and Girl, the Junior Fair Queen and her court, the "Mom of the Year," and the fair Grand Champions.

Let's GO! October 5, 2000 3

Clipped By:

mathew5554

Sun, Mar 17, 2019