

Halloween

(Comment from Page One)

...ational, both hospital employes. Other prizes awarded for or-maintenance and float were:

Second: $25. Girl Scouts, third, $15. National Guard; fourth, $12.50. Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary; fifth, $10. Cheerful Bad Stitches, Yellowdog; sixth, $5. Centralia voting post; seventh, $5. Boy Scouts, Troop 12.

Miss Ross County, Vera Strussbaugh, received as a prize $25 in cash while the school she repre-sents, Adelphi-Harrison, also re-ceived $25. Second place winner, Patty King of Chillicothe High, received $15 and third place win-ner, Helen Miznix of Southeast-ern received $10.

Prizes For Court

All members of the queen's court received $5 and all were given corsages. They included: Vera Norton, Huntington; Ada Jo Sowers, Deerfield; Margaret Silvia, Transfert; Joyce Lykins, Twin; Betty Leffingwell, Kings-ton-Lincoln; Irene McWaters, Union; Patty Swasabehn, Bain-bridge; Sonora Knapp, Centralia; Clara Jean Snow, Buckskin.

In the parade, the queen rode in new cars including Packard, Buick, Nash, Studebaker, Hud-son, Chrysler, Kaiser-Frazer, Lin-cold, Mercury and DeSoto.

Competition among the bands was keen and judging diffi-cult. The selections were made by Edward Amey, Circleville; Harry Bott and Harry E. Murphy, both of Columbus.

Judges of the nummers were: Charles Goelzer and John Heaker of Circleville, Mrs. Ples Liles of Forest, H. V. Bennett and Mrs. Helen Clime of Columbus.

Charles H. McCarthy was the master of ceremonies at the judge-ing platform, assisted by Charles R. Duncan.

Among the entertainers were: The donkey sisters, with Ross McCollister as the trainer and Orlin Bethel and Kenneth Bates as the donkey; the Bainbridge band; the Adelphi band; Chillicothe high school band also par-ticipated in the parade; Jimmy Dutton on the marimba and sily-harp; Phyllis and Donald Hibel, singers and guitar players; Phyl-lis Ann Ward, piano solo; Audrey Leach, Arline Skinner and Chris-tine Holtzclad, singing trio; Lee Garrett, singer; Dora Bakos, pianist; Albert Conaway and the "Live Bombers," instrumental quartet from the VA hospital.

Miss Patty Howe and Mrs. Carl Larrick were accompanists.

Prize Winners Listed

Winners of 50-cent prizes, their numbers and their addresses were:

103, Joe W. Bostwick, Route 7;
112, Sue Ross, 231 North High;
117, Jack Ross, 231 North High;
406, Nita Louise Vest, 148 North Hickory; 438, Janet Houser, 611 North Hickory; 407, Mrs. Oreville Vest, 145 North Hickory; 409, Mrs. Howard Rhinhardt, Corlies Hill; 412, Helen Joan Collins, Route 5; 435, Vera Mae Collins, Route 5; 28, Carolyn Sue Diehl, 838 West Fairview; 38, Howard Diehl, 830 West Fairview; 421, Mrs. Anne Seymour, Route 5; 422, Rosemary Seymour, Route 5;
401, Sue Mahia, 223 West is Fourth; 41, Dorothy McKeever; 822, Glencroft; 49, Dorothy Sel-bridge; 515 Lillo; 12, Mrs. Beatrice Bietzel, 610 East Sec-ond; 15, Mrs. Lucila Orevly, 88 West Fourth; 21, Martin L. Neff, Adelphi; 50, Mrs. John Spangler,

Clipped By:

mathew5554
Tue, Mar 19, 2019