

Pinckney Brewer, of Pleasant Ridge, Cincinnati.

Trinity Booth Wins

Receives First Place For Entry In Ross County Epworth League Festival At Clarksburg.

The crimson banner for outstanding booth went to Trinity Epworth League Friday night, at the Ross County League's festival at Clarksburg. Collections of cash and merchandise for the White Cross hospital, Columbus, and the Worthington Children's Home were represented in the booth exhibits, which were judged on artistry, message, valuation, building and attendance.

Bainbridge and Clarksburg tied for second place. Judges were Mrs. Alfred Havighurst, Cleveland; Mr. Earl Hedrick, Bainbridge, and Superintendent Pryor B. Timmons, Clarksburg. Seven leagues entered booths, and all received achievement awards. Total amount of donations to the above-named charities was $435.

Two hundred leaguers sat down to the 6:30 supper served by ladies of the Clarksburg church; and 50 more were present for the program. John Sigler, Chillicothe, played a prelude of accordion solos. The Rev. Paul Niswander of Kingston was toastmaster; Mary Gladys Smith of Frankfort and Catherine Collins, Trinity, song leaders.

After pep songs, Kathleen Roads of Bainbridge read scripture and the Rev. J. T. Yocom, Bourneville, gave the prayer. Ralph and Ann Haney of Trinity sang a duet, and Beulah Huff of Walnut Street church played a trumpet solo.

Election of officers followed, with Catherine Collins, Trinity, president; James Watson, Walnut street, vice-president; Mary Gladys Smith, Frankfort, vice-president; Carl Reisinger, Clarksburg, secretary-treasurer; Leland Price, Frankfort, chorister; Grace Bowdle, Dry Run, pianist; Ruth Milligan and Ardith Pyle, recorders. The Rev. G. C. Reed, Clarksburg, is councillor.

Speaker of the evening was Dr. Donald Tippet, Bexley M. E. church, Columbus.

"Leadership is always characterized by minorities," he told his youthful audience, and added "there are three points of conflict for youth to meet tomorrow: the reality of actuality, the reality of possibility, and the reality of spirituality."

A vocal trio from Frankfort sang: Leland Price, Willette Price and Norma Jean Anderson. After announcements and brief talks, Bethel League presented a skit, "Balancing the Budget", with Arlene Streitenberger and Raymond McNeal.

Pink roses centered the tables for the luncheon at which Mrs. E. E. Hale of North High street, was hostess Friday at Dun Glen. Luncheon was served at 1 p. m. to 20, including Mrs. George Hogg of Pittsburgh.

Contract was played at five tables, and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Margaret Steele, Mrs. Edwin F. Bearce and Mrs. George Robinson.

***

Mrs. Anna Abernathy Is Hostess At Dinner

Mrs. Anna Abernathy entertained at a three-course dinner Friday evening at her home in Frankfort.

Her guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sheets of Chillicothe, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whaley of Boston, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Whaley of near Roxabell.

Clipped By:

Bandman200
Sun, Nov 1, 2020