

ple." ☆ ☆ ☆

Entertained Loyal Workers' Class.

On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Harrison of East Seventh street entertained the Loyal Workers of the Bridge Street Church of Christ at a most enjoyable Hallowe'en party. The Harrison home was appropriately decorated for the occasion, pumpkin faces, snakes and spiders creating a spooky atmosphere. A witch who greeted the guests at the door added to the weird surroundings. Autumn leaves and fodder were also used in decoration.

After a pleasant evening, spent in Hallowe'en games, delicious refreshments of chicken sandwiches, celery hearts, potato salad, pumpkin pie, doughnuts, coffee, cider, fruit and mints were served.

Those present were Mrs. William Huff, Mr. and Mrs. Orel Francis, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brown, Mrs. Harold Ward, Mrs. Will Harris, Mrs. Carrie Scheeler, Mrs. Will Minear, Mrs. A. Johnson, Mrs. L. Dotson, Mr. and Mrs. William Page, Mrs. Pearl Trego, Rev. Miles Hoon, Mrs. Tillie Myatt, Marjory Huff, Robert Francis, Clara, Helen and Sue Taylor, Bernice Wilma and Franklin Mansfield, Helen Virginia Brown and Martha Jane and Clyde Ward.

☆ ☆ ☆

The Short Skirt is Here to Stay.

Miss Ca should r Hall, Sat

PF

Mrs. A township Point Ple make he Many wa her happ Mr. an to Cincin it their cred Hea Miss I Paint sti for Phila ter scho her aunt Hon. J ton, D. C iness an election.

Sc The fa was ann

Ta

Clipped By:

Bandman2020
Mon, Oct 26, 2020