Epworth League Hears A Special Music Program

Christmas carols of all lands were described by Mrs. J. A. Smith, before the Walnut Street Epworth League Sunday at 6:15 p. m. Miss Carol Armstrong told how Handel's "Messiah" came to be written.

The choir, consisting of Ruth Milliken, Mary Mader, Norma Jean Rea, Dorothy Robbins, Pat Jones and Beulah Huff assisted in this program by singing several of the well-known Christmas hymns. Mary Landrum and Ruth Milliken were soloists.

"We Three Kings of Orient Are" was sung by the trio, Charles Paul, Andrew Smith and James Watson. Beulah Huff played several selections on her cornet, and Mary Landrum gave several piano numbers.
