

2—Chillicothe (O.) Gazette Monday, Dec. 22, 1952

Obituaries and Funerals

Mrs. Floyd Daily
Mrs. Daisy Daily, 71, wife of Floyd Daily of 1438 Fairview avenue, Columbus, and a native of Pike county, died at 10 p. m. Sunday at the residence there. She had been ill several years. She was born on Feb. 3, 1880, daughter of Peter and C. Katherine Windal Dick. A son Max preceded her in death. In addition to her husband she is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Katherine Miller, London; Mrs. Dora Kent, West Jefferson; and Mrs. Clarice Parmer of near Columbus; and three sons, John of Lansing, Mich.; Ruben of Cincinnati; and Oliver at home. Services will be held at 1 p. m. Tuesday at the O. R. Woodyard funeral home, Columbus with the Rev. Mr. Fout of Columbus officiating. Burial will follow in the West Jefferson cemetery under the direction of the A. H. Boyer funeral home of Waverly.

Mrs. Perry Gaines
KINGSTON.—Mrs. Hazel Arledge Gaines, 39, died at her home at Mead at 1:30 p. m. Saturday after an illness of 18 months. Born near Adelphi Feb. 1, 1913, she was the daughter of Rexy and Bessie Smith Arledge. Surviving are the husband, Perry Gaines, six children, Mrs. Doris Anne Poling, Margie, Martha June, Larry W., Perry Jr., and Linda Jane, all at home; her parents; three sisters, Mrs. Janie Goodman, Circleville Route 1,

Mrs. Eleanor H. Huff
Mrs. Eleanor H. Huff, 72, died at her home, 85 North High street, at 10:45 a. m. Monday after an illness of several years. The fire department's inhalator squad was called to the residence but oxygen failed to revive her. Born in Lexington, Ky., May 31, 1880, a daughter of Robert and Anna Hastings Holton, she had been a resident of Chillicothe for 30 years. She was a member of First Christian church, the WCTC and had taught Sunday school for 52 years. Mrs. Huff had taught instrumental music and was director of orchestral and band music at the Sunday school. In addition to her service to the church, she had assisted in directing music for community activities. On Feb. 17, 1897, she was married to Will L. Huff, who died in 1942. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Robert Clark of Route 6 and Miss Marjorie Huff, at home; two sons, William of Chillicothe and Wilbur of Cincinnati; three sisters, Mrs. Edward Mahle of Dayton, Mrs. Lula Daniels of Frankfort, Ky., and Mrs. Ethel Sparks of Winchester, Ky.; a brother, Robert Hastings of Huntington, W. Va., and seven grandchildren. Service will be held at 2 p. m. Wednesday at Fawcett funeral home. Interment will be in Greenlawn cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 6 p. m. Tuesday.

Luther F. Jones

Red-eyed POW Charge By 45-
UNITED NA... weary United... early today tu... Russian deman... of the United S... mass murder o... Pongam Island... Immediately... the Assembl... Feb. 24, after... U. S. Preside... Eisenhower.
All-Ni
Red-eyed aft... debate, Assem... 45 "nays" to 5... against the Ru... members of t... abstained. The... group — Iraq... land — voted... move.
The Soviet l... port outside o... group for the r... denounced by... nest A. Gross a... "shabby mid... stunt."
Answer
Gross, rep... launched at m... Soviet Delegate... said the riot o... persons were k... to help the Kr... fact that "the

Clipped By:

Bandman200
Mon, Nov 2, 2020