ANNUAL GUEST DAY
Among the delightful affairs being planned for the holiday season, is the annual Guest Day, at which time the Century Club members will keep open house for their friends. The date has been set for Wednesday, December 29th, at three o'clock, in the club rooms. The officers of the club, will be hostesses and will preside at the table where tea will be served.

A lovely musical has been arranged with Mrs. Russell McVicker, Miss Anna Louise Horney, and the Ladies' Quartette, Mrs. J. D. Whitford, Mrs. Russell McVicker, Miss Grace Brown and Mrs. George Mythinger, uniting to make it an afternoon of rare enjoyment.

SPLENDID ENTERTAINMENT GIVEN AT ST. MARY'S
St. Mary's school auditorium was crowded on Wednesday evening, when the Christmas entertainment by the pupils of the school was given, at 8 o'clock. The program was exceptionally well done and reflects great credit upon the pupils and the Sisters of the school.

The orchestra, composed of piano, May Dennis and Louisa Gaus, violins, Mrs. Wm. Foster, Marie Hunter, Joseph Ald, Ed-

WILL ARRIVE FOR CHRISTMAS
Harry E. Treiber, who has been touring in Europe, the last six months, landed December 18th at St. John, New Brunswick and will arrive here shortly to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Treiber of West Water street.

Mr. Treiber spent a part of his vacation in teaching at Milano, Italy. In January, he will return to his regular work at the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston.

MRS. HIGHLAND HOSTESS.
The bridge club of which Mrs. Walter Highland is a member enjoyed a most charming party at her home on East Fourth street, Wednesday evening. The house had been decorated in holiday fashion and the gifts which were exchanged were placed about the beautifully decorated Christmas tree in the living room.

There was play at three tables, and at the close, prizes were awarded Mrs. Harry Coppel and Miss Beatrice Luago.

Dainty refreshments were served at a lovely with tables.
