Love Pact-Friendship Bring Fortunes to Two

Philadelphia, Dec. 23. (AP)—A 40-year love pact and a 12-year friendship with Pennsylvania bachelors have brought legacies of $100,000 and $1,000,000, respectively, to a Philadelphia spinster and a Chester widow.

Mrs. Lucelle Bell, 56-year-old widow was left nearly the entire estate of Clarence DeSong, 78, art patron, whose will has been filed for probate. While Miss Bernice McNulty, 55, was left $200,000 by William Gibson, 60, a Pittsburgh coal operator, with whom she had entered into an agreement 40 years ago never to marry.

DeSong's estate was valued at more than $1,000,000.

Neither woman was surprised by the contents of the wills and neither contemplates any change in their modes of living.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS HAD CELEBRATION

The Primary Department of the First Presbyterian Church met with a very pleasant character, Santa Claus, Thursday afternoon, at the church, for a most thrilling and exciting afternoon.

A program of carols, recitations, and stories made the hour pass very swiftly, and gifts were presented by Santa Claus to each excited youngster.

Mrs. P. B. Ferris, Mrs. Albert Ireland, Mrs. Sam Day, and Miss Katherine Kramer were in charge.

This evening, the intermediate department will present Bird's Christmas Carol."

At the Bridge Street Church, of Christ, on Thursday evening, the primary and junior departments of the Sunday School, had an unusually interesting and enjoyable program.

Recitations and songs were given, and a clever little play "Christmas Pilgrims" was presented. There was a Santa Claus and he most obligingly gave gifts to each and every child.

Mrs. Will Huff, Mrs. Pearl Trego and Mrs. Harold Brown were in charge of the program.
