

...ertain.
☆☆☆
ENTERTAINMENT GIVEN
One of the outstanding events in Odd Fellowship in the year 1929 was the entertainment given at the I. O. O. F. hall at Chillicothe, December 3 in honor of the grand master, James Fitzpatrick of Bethel, Ohio.
Mr. A. B. Vore, Bourneville, representative to the grand lodge presided over the meeting and the following program was given; solo, by Beulah Huff accompanied by Marjorie Huff; several violin numbers were given by Gwendolyn Wolf of Washington, C. H. accompanied by Regina Snyder. Music by Elmer Cutright's string trio was then given, followed by a short, inspiring and instrumental talk by Rev. J. H. Deemer, followed by music by Beulah Huff and Robert Mummy. Songs by a male quartet's was the next feature and then the grand master gave a twenty minute address, and spoke vallantly in so short a time.
Light refreshments were served to the Odd Fellow's and Rebekahs, who had filled the hall for the joyous occasion.
☆☆☆

Clipped By:

Bandman2020
Thu, Oct 29, 2020