

AAUW 'concert in the park' slated

A summer concert featuring the Adelphi Community Band is scheduled for Saturday at Ted Lewis Park.

The concert is the second summer concert sponsored by the American Association of University Women (AAUW).

The Adelphi Community Band will play marches and serenades in the main shelter house from 4 to 5:30 p.m.

The AAUW will also be selling strawberries and ice cream during the concert, however, the concert itself is free to the public.

Last summer the Circleville Chamber Orchestra performed in the concert.
