32 Tables Assemble For Benefit Party Sponsored By Women's Board Of 'Y'

Proceeds Will Be Used To Pay Camp Counsellor; Mrs. Carl F. Hagemann, General Chairman; Six High School Girls Entertain.

With 32 tables of cards at play Tuesday afternoon at the Eastern Star Temple, an atmosphere of congeniality prevailed among the players when the public generously responded to the beenfit party sponsored by the Women's Board of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Money from the party will be used to pay a camp counsellor in the summer, and to help pay expenses for underprivileged children.

Four Attendance Prizes

For the second annual party, a prize for high score was awarded at each table; and winners of the attendance trophies were Mrs. W. G. Coppel, Mrs. Karl J. W. Ebenhack, Mrs. William Diehl and Miss Anna Higley.

Home-made candy was sold during the afternoon, and while prizes were being awarded, The Melodiers, seven young girls of the high school, played several orchestra numbers.

Seven In Orchestra

Members of the orchestra are Misses Betty Lynch, Miriam Hartman, Nellie Maser, Florence Barrett, Beulah Huff, Janet Stamatz and Regina Smith.

Serving on the committee Tuesday were Mrs. Carl F. Hagemann, general chairman; Mrs. Edward F. Simes, table chairman; Mrs. Otis J. Story, attendance prizes, and Mrs. W. E. Higley, table prizes.

Decoration in the hall were particularly effective, red and white streamers, the same to be used Thursday evening for the Fireman's ball.
