

'A Good Friend You Can Depend On'

Names: Mr. & Mrs. Hugh Clark Jr.
Address: 7081 Ohio 180, Hallsville
Occupation: Farmer, Retired from DuPont
How Long A Gazette Subscriber: More than 40 years each

Why Do You Read The Gazette: Mrs. Clark: I would miss it if I didn't have it.
Mr. Clark: I like to cut articles out of it and post them at the Colerain Township Fire Department. I'm more interested in the local news.

What's Your Favorite Part of The Paper: Mrs. Clark: The Editorials, Obituaries and Weddings.
Mr. Clark: Local News, Editorials and Obituaries (If I turn there and don't see my name, I know I'm OK).

What's Your Favorite Comic: Mr. Clark: Funky Winkerbean because of the band director. I'm active in the Adelphi Community Band.

Where Would You Like To See Improvements In The Gazette: Mrs. Clark: I would like to see more court news, things the public should be aware of.
Mr. Clark: I'd like to see more farm markets and smaller columns of type. I do like the way the classified ads are organized into categories.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark have depended for 40 years on the Chillicothe Gazette to bring them the news and information about Ross County, the state, the nation, the world and their neighborhood. For 186 years, we've depended on people like Mr. and Mrs. Clark to let us know what they think about the newspaper and how we can better serve them.
