Statehood Day celebrations planned

Ohio's 177th birthday is less than a month away and the Chillicothe Kiwanis Club has two days of celebrating planned for Saturday and Sunday, March 1 and 2.

Sharing honors with the state this year will be the Adelphi Community Band which has reached the century mark. The band will be featured in the annual 8 p.m. Saturday Statehood Day Concert in the Chillicothe High School auditorium.

As is traditional, the special Statehood Achievement Award will be presented during the concert.

Another to be honored during the two-day event will be "Billy" Ireland, a native Chillicothean who was born 100 years ago and attained national fame as an editorial cartoonist for the Columbus Dispatch. Some of his sketches and cartoons will be on display at the Ross County Historical Society.

The weekend schedule includes:

Saturday - 9 a.m. — The Ross County Ministerial Association's Prayer Breakfast at Trinity United Methodist Church with Ohio House Speaker Vernal G. Riffe as guest speaker:

10 a.m.-4 p.m. — A muzzle-loading rifle shoot on Moss Hollow Road, sponsored by the Ross County Primitive Weapons Club.
