ADDITIONAL SOCIAL

0; their families, Thursday evening. the guests numbering about one hundred.

A delicious dinner was served, the colors of the society, Red and White being used in decorations. An informal social evening was spent, during which an interesting program was given. Rev. and Mrs. Richards were presented with a number of lovely gifts, among them a large bouquet of red and white carnations being especially appreciated by Mrs. Richards.

The officers of the society received the guests, and were in charge of the affair. They are Mrs. Lee Dumm, president, Mrs. D. C. Mansfield, secretary, Mrs. Dora Lee, treasurer, Mrs. Ross Willis, assistant treasurer, and Mrs. Will Huff.

Rev. and Mrs. Richards leave on Monday for Shreve, Ohio, where Rev. Richards has accepted a call. The best wishes of the congregation and a host of friends without the church will follow them there.
