G. F. S. ENTERTAINED FOR REV. AND MRS. DONALDSON

Complimenting the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Donaldson, who are leaving February 20th, to take up their residence in Berkeley, the Girls Friendly Society entertained on Monday evening in S. Paul's Parish House with a covered dish supper. The occasion was a most enjoyable one, and there were a number of other guests.

A delicious dinner was served at 6:30, the tables being particularly attractive, centered with posied George Washington cherry trees, and lighted with red candles in crystal holders. Favors were dainty red and white nut baskets.

A number of Girls Friendly songs were sung during the dinner and by Mrs. Caroline Throckmorton, the accompaniments being played by Mrs. Robert Cutright.

Mrs. J. C. Douglas, on behalf of the members of the society, presented Rev. and Mrs. Donaldson with a set of salad forks, stressing the pleasure which the society has always found its association with both honor guests, and the sincere regret with which they view their removal to Berkeley.

Rev. Mr. Donaldson responded and gave a splendid talk on the principal ideal of the society, which is friendliness, and the way in which it may be utilized to the betterment of the society and its preservation.

The American Hawaiians, who have become very popular, because of the splendid quality of their entertainment, gave a most enjoyable program, following the dinner.

COLONIAL PROGRAM WAS PRESENTED

Following the usual business meeting of Martha Rebekah Lodge No. 22, Monday evening, in I. O. O. F. Hall, the losing side of a recent contest entertained the winning side with a most enjoyable program.

The program opened with a saxophone duet by Roy Homan and Charles Schaffer, and the reading of Henry Holcomb Bennett's familiar poem, "Hats Off, The Flag Is Passing By," by Miss Mae Patterson, and a reading on the life of Washington by Ronald Esmaugel.

A very pretty and clever playlet was presented, all those participating being in Colonial costume, with the background being appropriately decorated. The playlet was written about the rehearsal for an entertainment to be given in the old Town Hall, and all the try-outs, the disensions, and all the by play which such an event causes, were most cleverly combined in this presentation.

The program presented consisted of the recitation of "Barbara Fretchie" by Dorothy Rood, a reading, "The American Flag" by Mrs. Nannie Getchell, and several colonial selections by a quartette composed of Mrs. Carl Esmaugel, Mrs. Nannie Getchell, Dorothy Rood and Mrs. Homer Collins, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginny", and "My Darlin' Nellie Gray", and the playing of old southern melodies by Mrs. Homer Collins.

Mrs. Will Huff and her daughter, Beulah, dressed in the garb of an old southern mammy slave, and her son, appeared and desired a place on the program, and they were allowed to present their numbers, which consisted of guitar selections, vocal duets and dances typical of the southern states by Beulah Huff.

At the close, the members were invited to the dining room which was decorated in red, white and blue, the tables being centered with a French doll dressed to represent Detsy Ross, and with red hatchets decorating the cloth, where delicious refreshments were served.
