ELKS' LADIES TO RALLY FOR BENEFIT FOR THE CHILLICOTHE HOSPITAL

Each year, now, for several years, the Elks' Lodge has, through its women—wives, sisters, mothers and sweethearts, of the order, devoted one day to a benefit to the local hospital—such a charity necessarily appealing to this order, which is keen to help where help is necessary. To that end, the date chosen this year for such a benefit, is Tuesday afternoon of March 1st. (Shrove Tuesday) the day before evil begins.

The committees needful to pilot such a large undertaking to a success, have been nominated by the Good of the Order committee of the lodge, and are herewith given, this public announcement being an official appointment to a place in the line of workers for this grand cause:
