

Kiwanis will present award

The distinctive shape of the state of Ohio takes on a special dimension during the annual Statehood Day celebration sponsored by the Chillicothe Kiwanis Club.

The state-outline of the Statehood Achievement Award is presented to individuals that celebration sponsors feel have made significant contributions to community, state and-or nation. The list to which another name will be added Tuesday night includes men and women who represent many fields of endeavor:

- 1969 — Greg Cook of Chillicothe, University of Cincinnati quarterback who set a national collegiate passing record and starred for the Cincinnati Bengals, and Vick Stottlenyer, middle guard of The Ohio State University national champion football team.
- 1970 — The late W. Andrew McNeillis of Chillicothe, "Old Rock" First Presbyterian Church organist and music instructor.
- 1971 — R. Alan Gough of Chillicothe, Ross County artist-in-residence.
- 1972 — The late Eugene D. Rigney of Chillicothe, historian and Ross County Historical Society director.
- 1973 — Wilbur L. "Rusty" Mundell of Chillicothe, director of "Tecumseh!" outdoor drama and the Scioto Society Inc.
- 1974 — Lloyd E. Savage of Chillicothe, Chillicothe City Schools music supervisor and area music educator-promoter.
- 1975 — Barbara Bolmer Kalfs of Waverly, author of the Scioto Saga historical series in Chillicothe Gazette.
- 1976 — Myrl H. Shoemaker of Bourneville, state legislator.
- 1977 — (The Big Blizzard cancelled the celebration.)
- 1978 — Paul Hydell of Chillicothe, Chillicothe City and Pickaway-Ross Joint Vocational Center superintendent for service to youth.
