

ch-
nel the
Hong
er,
ma
m. pel
ne-

"Patience" To Be Offered Tuesday

Archaic Harps Ready For Use In CHS Operetta.

THIRTY-FIVE archaic harps have been completed, for the "lovesick aesthetic craving maidens" of the operetta "Patience", it was announced Wednesday by the director, Miss Mabel Lawler. Next Tuesday night the Gilbert and Sullivan opus will be presented at the high school auditorium.

Mr. William Roy Tucker and his manual training classes are hard at work on scenery proper to the locale. Mrs. Frances Cushing, aided by Mr. James D. Bickel, made the harps; and Miss Majorie Farrell has assisted in teaching dance and ceremonial routines. Miss Virginia Barrett has made posters to be displayed at the city schools and in downtown windows.

The orchestra for "Patience" includes Ralph Kemmerer, piano; Evelyn Wells, violin; Miriam Hartman, cello; John League, double-bass; Carl Boll, flute; Theodore Spetnagel, clarinet; Beulah Huff, cornet; Walter Davis, trombone.

D. D. E. D. L.

will
fri-
eed we
at eral
ine
vell
Mrs.
the
nt-
hall
ank
vert
cob
ker.
wn
ett
ins
eral
ere ent

Clipped By:

Bandman2020
Sun, Nov 1, 2020