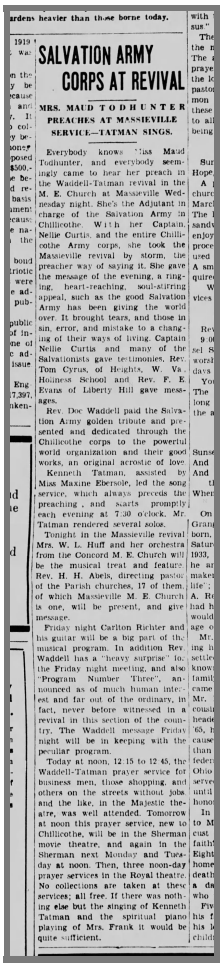
Newspapers by ancestry

Downloaded on Oct 31, 2020



ardens heavier than those borne today.

SALVATION ARMY CORPS AT REVIVAL

MRS. MAUD TODHUNTER PREACHES AT MASSIEVILLE SERVICE.—TATMAN SINGS.

Everybody knows Miss Maud Todhunter, and everybody seemingly came to hear her preach in the Waddell-Tatman revival in the M. E. Church at Massieville Wednesday night. She's the Adjutant in charge of the Salvation Army in Chillicothe. With her Captain, Nellie Curtis, and the entire Chillicothe Army corps, she took the Massieville revival by storm, the preacher way of saying it. She gave the message of the evening, a ringing, heart-reaching, soul-stirring appeal, such as the good Salvation Army has been giving the world over. It brought tears, and those in sin, error, and mistake to a changing of their ways of living. Captain Nellie Curtis and many of the Salvationists gave testimonies, Rev. Tom Cyrus, of Heights, W. Va., Holiness School and Rev. F. E. Evans of Liberty Hill gave messages.

Rev. Doc Waddell paid the Salvation Army golden tribute and presented and dedicated through the Chillicothe corps to the powerful world organization and their good works, an original acrostic of love.

Kenneth Tatman, assisted by Miss Maxine Ebersole, led the song service, which always precede the preaching, and starts promptly each evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Tatman rendered several solos.

Tonight in the Massieville revival Mrs. W. L. Huff and her orchestra from the Concord M. E. Church will be the musical treat and feature. Rev. H. H. Abels, directing pastor of the Parish churches, 17 of them, of which Massieville M. E. Church is one, will be present, and give message.

Friday night Carlton Richter and his guitar will be a big part of the musical program. In addition Rev. Waddell has a "heavy surprise" for the Friday night meeting, and also "Program Number Three", announced as of much human interest and far out of the ordinary, in fact, never before witnessed in a revival in this section of the country. The Waddell message Friday night will be in keeping with the peculiar program.

Today at noon, 12:15 to 12:45, the Waddell-Tatman prayer service for business men, those shopping, and others on the streets without jobs and the like, in the Majestic theatre, was well attended. Tomorrow at noon this prayer service, new to Chillicothe, will be in the Sherman movie theatre, and again in the Sherman next Monday and Tuesday at noon. Then, three noon-day prayer services in the Royal theatre. No collections are taken at these services; all free. If there was nothing else but the singing of Kenneth Tatman and the spiritual piano playing of Mrs. Frank it would be quite sufficient.

with sun"

Sur Hope,

Rev 9:0 sel S worsl days

Sunse And And

When

On Gran born, Satur 1903, he ar maker life'.

A. R had h would age o

Mr. ing h settle know famil came Mr. could heade '65, h cause than feder Ohio serve until hono

In to M cust faith' Eight home death a da who

Fiv his f his b child

Clipped By:

Bandman2020
Sat, Oct 31, 2020

Copyright © 2020 Newspapers.com. All Rights Reserved.

Powered by Newspapers.com