

S! MASSIEVILLE REVIVAL GROWS

CONCORD CHURCH NIGHT BRINGS OUT LARGE ATTENDANCE.

The attendance at the Waddell-Tatman revival in the M. E. Church at Massieville has increased nightly since it launched. "Salvation Army Night" was thought to be the peak, but, Thursday night, "Concord M. E. Church Night" went it one better. The feature extraordinary Thursday night was Mrs. W. L. Huff and her Concord M. E. orchestra, composed of the young girls of that church. Wonderful their music that touched hearts.

Rev. J. H. Abels, directing pastor of the Parish churches, 17 of them in Pickaway, Pike and Ross counties, Massieville M. E. being one of the 17, was present, taking active part, giving a message brim full and overflowing with spirituality and pronouncing the benediction. Bundy Allison contributed a testimony message, and spoke the opening prayer.

Different visiting ministers come nightly and never fail to enter into the activities. The attendance of children is remarkable, and unlike most revivals as many men attend as women.

Kenneth Tatman directed an impressive song service, and as usual sang several solos.

Rev. Doc Waddell is never for a moment out of the program and his message ran true to the Waddell way, hitting straight from the shoulder and calling a spade a spade.

Tomorrow night will be "Musical Movie Night" at the revival. The "headliner" will be Carlton Richter with his guitar. His spiritual renditions stir all who hear to good thought. Two other features are scheduled: one a "heavyweight" offering, and the other a mystifying "what?" These will be "surprises", explains Evangelist Waddell.

Saturday will be "lay off" or "rest" night, but Sunday is to be one of the vigorous evenings of the revival. It will continue nightly. Saturday nights excepted, through Sunday night, March 26.
