

Catholic Ladies Make Plans for April Party

Plans were made for an elaborate post-Baster party, April 8, at the regular business meeting of members of the Catholic Ladies' of Columbus of St. Peter's Monday night at the K. of C. rooms.

The organization has been divided into two sides, the A's and the B's, and the division will be in effect at the April social affair. Mrs. Fred Harp is general chairman for the party. The beginning of the juvenile organization was started at Monday night's meeting and further plans for the young people will be effected later, it is announced.

The next business meeting of the organization will be held April 13.

A BIRTHDAY DINNER
Celebrating the 74th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Thomas Dunsey of 141 North Watts street, a very beautiful dinner was given at her home Sunday noon.

Covers were laid for fifteen at a table centered with sweet peas and carnations. Seated here were Mr. and Mrs. Dunsey, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Schooley, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Toy, Miss Henry Toy, Mrs. Edward Thompson, Miss Mary O'Donnell, all of Columbus, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Alexander, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hordel of this city.

Mrs. Dunsey received many beautiful gifts from these guests. During the afternoon friends from this city called to offer congratulations.

LADIES OF R. O. F. & E.
The Ladies Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers will meet in Forester's hall Wednesday at 12:30 for a noonday dinner, with Mrs. Elizabeth Smith of Columbus present for the initiation and inspection which will follow the dinner.

SOUL CIRCLE CLUB
Miss May Ingham, East Fourth street, was hostess to members of the Soul Circle Sewing Club, Monday evening. Commencing the pleasant evening of sewing and conversation, the hostess served a tempting salad course.

The next meeting will be with Miss Helen Walker, East Main street.

BUMMAGE SALE SUCCESS
The rummage sale held by the Martha Rebekah Lodge Friday and Saturday was a great success, due to the generosity of the merchants, mindful of this fact, and are very and other friends. The ladies are grateful.

MARTHA REBEKAH MEET
An unusually interesting program was given at the regular meeting of Martha Rebekah Lodge No. 22 Monday night at I. O. O. F. hall.

Members of the establishment followed piano quartet. Mrs. Clarence Reed and Miss Gladys Conroy, vocal solo. Miss Gertrude Schoppert, piano solo. Robert and Janet Munroy, play "Boysie Eggs". Mrs. Della Walker, Mrs. C. Chaffey and Mrs. Vassar Ruttle, song. Hechab Huff; play "The Interrupted Courtship". Mrs. Leroy Taylor, Mrs. Della Walker, Miss Nettie Wiseman, Mrs. Cora Burdette, Mrs. Schoppert and Mrs. C. Carney, reading, Mrs. Louisa Collins.

Concluding the affair a delectable luncheon was served by the committee. Mrs. Leroy Taylor was chairman of the program and luncheon committees for the meeting.

MEETING DATE CHANGED.
The address of Mrs. Lulu Shepard on Monroeville enclosures, which has been scheduled for Wednesday evening at the First Presbyterian Church, has been cancelled and Mrs. Shepard will speak at the church, Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock on the subject, "Woman's Temple Society" for women only.

Mrs. Shepard is a wonderful woman, and has a great message which the women of the community will want to hear.

The meeting had been announced to be held at Trinity M. E. church, but because of the service of Baptism, which will be held at Trinity Methodist church, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church instead, and will be held at 2 o'clock instead of 2:30.

RED CIRCLE CLUB.
The regular weekly meeting of the Red Circle Club was held in the club rooms, Monday evening at 4 o'clock, with Miss Valeria McKinstry in charge of the supper. After a short business meeting, a social hour was enjoyed.

Miss Helen Green will be in charge of the next meeting.

ENTERTAINED SEWING CLUB.
Mrs. Ernest Augustus of Church street, entertained her sewing club on Monday evening. During the evening a delicious salad course was served by the hostess.

Mrs. Howard DeLong will be the next hostess to the club.

MISS FITZGERALD, HOSTESS.
Miss Florence Fitzgerald, of Stanley street, was hostess to her bridge club of the ladies, Monday evening. Miss Agnes Maloney being a guest of the club.

Miss Mary Maloney won the prize for high score and Miss Agnes Maloney, the low prize. The hostess served a delicious salad course.

Miss Anne Brown will entertain the club April 5.

COLE ROGERS CARTWRIGHT.
Mrs. Cole Rogers Cartwright, widow of R. J. Cartwright, died at her home, near Washington, C. H., Monday. Death resulted from complications. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Wednesday at the Maple Grove M. E. church with the Rev. Vandegriff officiating. Burial will be in the Washington, C. H., cemetery.

PHI BETA PHI DINNER.
The dining table in the Phi Beta Phi society bridge room, captained by Miss Frances Barrett, was set to the winning side with a delightful spread. Monday night at the party home of Mrs. Charles Van Meter, Miss Elizabeth Keim was head of the winning group.

A delicious dinner was served from tables, daintily arranged with a variety of color and green and white. Vases of white sweepstakes and ferns were center attractions.

During the short business meeting, it was decided to continue for bridge tournaments, during three more meetings, with the same captains. At the next meeting delegates to the National Society Convention to be held at Washington, C. H., will be named.

In the bridge games which followed Monday night's dinner, Mrs. Corinne Miller was successful.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Balle and Frank Knauffman, Water street, will open the weekend, with Miss Marie Ankrom of Columbus.

Through a French white material given by Mrs. Dunsey to the club.

Miss Maloney of R. W. O. Sharon has road, and has been skill in Art street, where Mr. Robert Lee has managers to remember the double.

Get The Mrs. Harp of I. M. Major's apartment. Freda Mott. Mrs. Mott is co-chairman of the Club. Mrs. Mott is a member of the Phi Beta Phi.

Clipped By:

Bandman2020
Thu, Oct 29, 2020