

BIG NITE TONITE AT MASSIEVILLE

HIGH TIDE TO BE REACHED AT WADDELL-TATMAN
SERVICES

Tonight is down to be the biggest meeting of the Waddell-Tatman revival in the Massieville M. E. church.

It is announced as "Omega-Post"er's Chapel-Massieville M. E. and U. B. Nite," honoring Rev. E. S. Matheny, of Columbus, the wonder man of the ministry, who in the past was pastor for all the churches named The "Nightingale" choir from Omega, and the wonderful congregation from Foster's Chapel, will be present. Then as an extra added extraordinary feature will be Rev. L. H. Hampshire, pastor of Chillicothe's First United Brethren church with his band of appealing chanters and "never-let-up" workers. Rev. E. S. Matheny will deliver the message. Rev. Hampshire will speak also.

While Wednesday night's meeting was the largest attended to date tonight, church folk say, will exceed all others, and have prepared for an overflow crowd.

Wednesday night's musical program was all "The Cottonpickers" rendered a program of melodies and spirituals, the like of which for superiority and emphatic harmony was never heard in Massieville before. Oh, the applause they received! On the air, broadcasting they are in demand all over the country. Their church was with them. He is Rev. W. H. Reynolds, pastor of Chillicothe's First Baptist church. What a powerful spiritual message he preached. "It took me back to the days when that Old Virginia Mammy nursed me, and advised me, when I was a child," he said. "I always do, following the clever Herbert Schumann, magician, who pleased the big crowd with seemingly unexplainable mystery tricks, which Rev. Waddell said was an object lesson unto all for good, to be careful of amusement, and handle with care, and to know what the human eye sees is not really so."

Rev. H. H. Abeis prayed at the opening and Rev. Waddell pronounced the benediction.

Kenneth Tatman, assisted by Misses Martha Eberole and Gertrude Currier, led a song service, and Mr. Tatman sang solos.

Tonorrow night comes one of the great surprises of the revival. Among other features a Woman Preacher, whom you've all heard of, and wanted to hear, will give the message. There will be young lady musicians on the program. No meeting Saturday night. The revival positively closes Sunday night.

Today, at noon, the Waddell-Tatman half hour, 12:15 to 12:45, noonday prayer service, was held in the Royal theatre. Rev. E. S. Matheny leading it, Kenneth Tatman with Mrs. H. E. Frank accompanist.

THE NEWS-JIGGER

The leader whose picture is accompanied here started a nation's new era 10 years ago in the capital of the Caesars. Cut along the white lines and see if your reassembled likeness agrees with the solution on page nine.

Directed the music. Miss Marjorie Huff gave a cornet solo exceptionally well. Tomorrow at noon in "The Royal" concludes the moon half hour services.

HASTINGS TO ATTEND FRIGIDAIRE MEETING

R. E. Hastings, local dealer for Frigidaire electric household refrigerators, has been invited by H. W. Newell, vice-president in charge of sales for the Frigidaire Corporation, subsidiary of General Motors, to meet with officials of the company on March 24 in Cincinnati where several hundred of the company's dealers will be assembled. He will be accompanied by W. L. Hinkliff.

The meeting is to be one of a number held simultaneously in various sections of the country. Frigidaire's advertising, promotional and sales plans for the remaining months of 1933 will be discussed in detail for the benefit of the company's 15,000 dealers and salesmen.
