

Mrs. Head Reviews Book; Orchestra Offers Music For New Century Club

Large Group Gathers For Enjoyable Program And Tea Arranged By The Standing Committee; Mrs. L. T. Franklin Named Secretary.

Revealing anew her power of discernment and her appreciation of literary values, Mrs. Depew Head of Columbus delighted a large group of Century Club members Saturday afternoon with a review of Anne Morrow Lindbergh's charmingly told story of "North to the Orient".

She brought to her hearers up-to-the-minute data concerning this book which is reported to have outsold all other non-fiction books since last September, not having lost its first place for a single week. She voiced the prediction that this saga of travel will live through the years.

Young Folks Music

Adding to the pleasure of the afternoon, nine young musicians grouped as an orchestra, were presented by Mr. Russell N. Squire, director of the high school orchestra and band.

Their numbers were "Old Time Dance" (English 1600); "When the Heavens Resound"; "Masurka Dance," with the old Russian national anthem. The orchestra included Robert Simms, Edward Haynes, Anthony Huntington, Andrew Smith, Charles Paul, Donald Williams, Charles Harris, Beulah Huff and Mary Landrum.

During the business session the president, Mrs. Robert B. Acton announced the convention of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs, May 11th and 12th at Toledo. The resignation of Mrs. Thomas A. Ware, as newly elected secretary, was read, and Mrs. L. T. Franklin was elected to fill the office.

Mrs. Wilby G. Hyde, Mrs. E. K. Johnson, Mrs. F. R. Aldrich, Mrs. Harry F. Von Kennel and Miss Florentina Mathias were appointed a committee to investigate a movement to bring a course of children's plays to this city.

Serve Tea

Tea was served from a lace-covered table, centered with two flat vases of calendula and blue rock, placed horizontally of the side. Mrs. Edward A. Chappell and Mrs. Thomas A. Ware poured. The orchestra was heard again during the social hour.

The tea was arranged and served by members of the program committee, Miss Helen Sullivan, Mrs. Dard Hunter, Mrs. Harry F. VonKennel, Mrs. Vernon Barrett, Mrs. Frank Marx and Mrs. F. S. Pope.
