Adelphi, Ohio
Established 1880

Newsletter

Date: March 4, 2024

Greetings and Salutations!

The purpose of today's missive is to provide information on upcoming events, performances, anticipated performances, and some useful tools to make things easier. Let us know if that happened for you.

It was reported that the February rehearsal was well attended, and the venue worked out well. That's great, especially since we will be back there on March 11th (see below).

Our Director, Kolin, has provided some insight into our anticipated activities for 2024, plus some dates that have been confirmed. As a reminder, this information can also be found on the band web site:

<http://adelphiband.weebly.com/>

While visiting the web site you will note numerous audio recordings, video recordings, music downloads, and pictures of the band. As new material is being dug out of basements, it is being added to the web site.

Check back regularly to see what new material has been recently added.

Stay warm!

John Mathew

April 2024:

PRACTICE: Monday, April 15, 2024.

We have a concern with the original date of April 8th.. As you may have heard, the 8th is the date of the total eclipse. While Circleville is not on the "path of totality" as it is being called, Ohio is expected to have unprecedented numbers of visitors for that day. We chose to avoid being caught up in the events of that day.

May 2024:

Bonus Content!

While exchanging messages with Kolin about this newsletter, I kiddingly asked for the winning lottery numbers. You know, just for extra $ for that new horn to add to my collection. In response, I received the following. Just another example that artistry isn't just contained to notes on a page.

John

*In the realm of numbers, chance holds sway,
Where lottery dreams dance in a playful array.
Yet in this world of whimsical delight,
Predicting the winning numbers takes flight.
No crystal ball nor mystic seer,
Can unravel what the draw holds dear.
For each digit, a tale untold,
In the lottery's grasp, mysteries unfold.
Numbers twirl in a random dance,
No pattern, no rhythm, no fated chance.
To seek a fortune in digits divine,
Is to chase a fleeting, elusive sign.
So play with joy, but temper your hope,
For the lottery's reach is beyond a mere trope.
In the realm of numbers, chance may reign,
But in life's rich tapestry, dreams sustain.*
