

W. Va., on January 24th, but which has been kept a secret.

Mrs. Rice was formerly Miss Bertha Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Allen, of Zanesville, and Mr. Rice is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Rice, of this city.

☆☆☆

REBEKAH LODGE MEETING

The Martha Rebakah Lodge No. 22 held its regular business and social meeting, Monday evening, in I. O. O. F. Hall, with one hundred members and visitors present.

A St. Patrick's Day program was presented during the social hour, with orchestra music furnished by four boys. Mary Martha Collins gave a clever reading, followed by a vocal duet by Mrs. Homer Collins and Mrs. Nannie Getchell. Donald Barnes and Charles Schaffer played a saxophone duet, and Mildred Ludwig sang a solo.

An Irish reading was given by Miss Mae Patterson, followed by a dialogue by two typical Irish ladies posters that will be used in a national campaign.

Mrs. Wm. Huff and Mrs. Oney Eisnagle, and a solo by Beulah Huff. Mrs. Homer Collins gave a reading, and Charles Tomastik was given a prize for telling the best Irish joke.

Delicious refreshments were served at the close.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lulu Smithson, on March 21st.

☆☆☆

CONVENTION DETAILS HEARD.

At the meeting of the Phi Beta Psi sorority, on Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. Fred Schlegel, on South Paint street, interesting reports on the convention of the sorority, which was held in Dayton last Saturday and Sunday, were given by the delegates. Miss Gladys Goodman and Miss Katherine Kramer. There was a very good attendance at the

Clipped By:

Bandman2020
Wed, Oct 28, 2020