American Legion Benefit Card Party Was Attractive Affair

Emphasizing an attractive color motif of yellow and green, the American Legion benefit card party Thursday evening, at the Elks' Club, proved one of the smartest social affairs of the season.

The table on which prizes were assembled was decorated in lovely style. Centering 't was a silver basket of spring flowers, while on either end were green candle holders with yellow tapers. Fluted yellow and green crepe paper was shirred about the table edges and covered it.

Another attractive feature of the affair was a display table for showing the handiwork accomplished by the "boys" at the U. S. V. B. Hospital.

Recalling vividly the war days, were the bogey numbers, 11 and 1918, significant because of Armistice Day, November 11, 1928.

Boxes of home-made candy, the containers being made of green and yellow, were sold.

Approximately fifty tables were set for play and prizes were won as follows: First, Mrs. W. E. Higley and Dr. George Mytinger; second, Mrs. F. M. Rogers and Mrs. Howard Harman; third, Mrs. Albert Schlegel and Dr. F. M. Rogers, and low, Mrs. Roy Drury and Mr. W. E. Schlegel. Bogey number prizes were given Mrs. R. W. Gilmore and Mr. James Hannan.

Concluding the affair, dainty refreshments were served. At this time, Wilbur Kramer, accompanied by Miss Lelia Sauers, sang beautifully a group of popular songs.
