

MASSEVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Immelt and children were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Landrum Monday evening.

Dr. J. T. Growdon returned home on Tuesday from a ten days' visit with his daughter, Mrs. Chas. Nave, at Akron.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sheets spent last Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. R. L. Riley.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Schiller and baby spent Sunday with his sisters, Mrs. Edward Rinehart and Mrs. Joseph Trego.

Mrs. Victor Vester spent Sunday afternoon with her mother, Mrs. Nannie England.

Mrs. Clarence Reid and children, Mary and Lucille, spent Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. Robt. Fulton, and sister, Mrs. Elmer Throckmorton, both of them being quite sick with la grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rost spent Friday afternoon with relatives.

Mrs. John Vanscop and daughter, Mrs. Murray Anderson, of Slate Mills, were the guests of Mrs. J. T. Growdon last Wednesday.

Misses Mary Trego, of Liberty Hill, and Mattie Trego, of this village, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hupp, of Dry Run.

Mrs. Scott Finley, who has been on the sick list since about Christmas time, is able to get out once again. She was calling among her friends and neighbors for the first time Monday.

Mr. Thomas Huff, while sawing wood, met with a painful accident, striking his hand and tearing the flesh. Dr. Meggenhofen dressed the wound.

HIBGY.

Last week it was announced in our items that the Franklin township school exhibition would be held here on the 28th day of April, 1916. This was incorrect, it will be held on Saturday, April 29th, 1916.

Messrs. Vause and Lee Snyder and Miss Elna Snyder, of this place, attended Sunday school at Sandy Run Sunday morning.

Mrs. Chas. Stulley, of the Antonis community, is very ill.

Rev. Palmer, of near Richmond Dale, will preach at the stone church at Antonis on Saturday night, April 15, 1916. Mr. Palmer is a good talker and he will probably render an interesting sermon. Everybody invited.

Rev. Atkinson, of Omega, pastor of the local M. E. church, filled his appointment here on Sunday afternoon, April 9, 1916. Mr. Atkinson will talk here every other Sunday afternoon or night.

The Snyder boys, Ora, Vause and Lee, of this place, were Sunday evening guests at the home of E. M. Leatherwood, at Antonis.

Born—A Son.

A son was born Wednesday night to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dailey, of Arch street.

At St. Mark's.

Lenter services will be held at St. Mark's Mission Friday April 14 at 9 a. m., by arch-deacon J. H. Dodson. Everybody is cordially invited.

CAREWORN

Clipped By:

Bandman2020
Thu, Oct 22, 2020