

PAGE TWO

Easter Service Well Attended

Thousands Go To Churches Here To Celebrate Holy Festival; Eight Congregations Represented At Sunrise Ceremonies At Grandview.

(Continued from Page 1.)

ed for a new life. Weak before, they are suddenly strong; afraid, they are suddenly filled with courage.

"Certain things have lived from the day of the resurrection. The only death was the death of those who tried to put him out of the way.

"Sunday of Joy"

"This is a Sunday of joy; the triumph of life over death, love over hate. Christ preached love, by the sacrifice of himself for his fellowmen on the cross. He lived because of love. Life and love, synonymous together, always triumph, while hate and death fail."

After the last hymn, "Jesus Shall Reign," the Rev. Hunter gave the benediction, and the congregation turned round to see an Easter morning sun, balanced on a cloud bank of mauve.

The following churches were represented: First United Brethren, Tyler United Brethren, Trinity M. E., Walnut Street M. E., Calvary Lutheran, First Presbyterian, Tabernacle Baptist, St. John's Evangelical.

Mrs. Harriet Cushenberry and Miss Ann Medley were in charge of the Sunday School program presented Sunday evening.

Christian Union

At the Sunday School service at the Church of Christ in Christian Union, North High street, the Rev. E. A. Keaton, pastor, announces there were 534 in attendance. An Easter message was delivered by the pastor at the 10:30 o'clock service, and in the evening, there were 11 seekers at the altar.

St. Peter's

At High Mass at 6 o'clock at St. Peter's church, the choir sang Millard's Mass in G followed by benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Eugene Fuchs is organist, and Cecilia Burkley, directress. Sister Helen Cecille, organist and directress, had charge of the hymns during the 8:30 mass sung by the children. Weigan's Mass in E-flat was sung at the High Mass at 10 o'clock.

God". At the evening service, Rev. Lowman sang.

Trinity M. E.

Over 2,600 attended the Trinity M. E. church Easter Day. At the service, Dr. A. J. Kestle preached "The Resurrection Triumphant." During the service, 54 new members were added to the church roster. Glen Uhl, a candidate for baptism, was baptized. The evening service by the choir of 35 voices. Miss Uhl presided at the organ.

Church of Christ

At the Bible School service at the Church of Christ in Christian Union, the children presented a play titled "A Wonderful Evening." The choir appeared in "Answer of the Church."

Calvary Lutheran

During the High Mass service at 10:30 o'clock at Calvary Lutheran, the vestments were worn by Mrs. Clare. "Dawns The New Morning" by G. Hill presided. Four adult children were baptized in at this afternoon ceremony. A cantata "The Candle Light Choir" at the candle light choir.

Free Holiness

Mrs. Martha Ko

Clipped By:

Bandman200
Sun, Nov 1, 2020